SHOW NOTE HIGHLIGHTS

In a world wrought with tribulations, knowing that God’s priesthood power is on the earth today and available to both men and women is vital. In this episode we talk about how women can draw upon this power and how to recognize the amazing blessings we have available to us from our Heavenly Father.

Episode Notes

Many of the quotes mentioned are from President Russell M. Nelson’s talk, “Spiritual Treasures,” October 2019 general conference Spiritual Treasures \(churchofjesuschrist.org\)

“Earth can either be the entire globe upon which all of us live, or it can be the soil that we can pick up with our hands and plant flowers in. If we think of the priesthood solely in terms of the power and authority of God delegated to man-or the soil, we will find that we have been very narrow in our definition, leaving out much of God's power and authority. “ ~Elder and Sister Renlund The Melchizedek Priesthood: Understanding the Doctrine & Living the Principles. “Baptized members have a willingness to take His NAME upon them”. And “in the temple we actually take His authority upon us”. ~Barbara Morgan Gardner. “Sisters, some will try to persuade you that because you are not ordained to the priesthood you have been shortchanged. They are simply wrong, and they do not understand the gospel of Jesus Christ. The blessings of the priesthood are available to every righteous man and woman. We may all receive the Holy Ghost, obtain personal revelation, and be endowed in the temple, from which we emerge “armed” with power. The power of the priesthood heals, protects, and inoculates all of the righteous against the powers of darkness. Most significantly, the fullness of the priesthood contained in the highest ordinances of the house of the Lord can only be received by a man and woman together.” ~Sheri Dew. <https://www.churchofjesuschrist.org/study/general-conference/2001/10/it-is-not-good-for-man-or-woman-to-be-alone?lang=eng>

“Often, we women don’t realize that the power through which we accomplish ‘much good’ in our callings and in our homes is an expression of priesthood power. As a matter of fact, all the good that is done in the world is done through God’s power. . . . Knowing that women have access to that priesthood power strengthens us to be able to do what is asked in whatever responsibilities or assignments are ours.”~ Jean B. Bingham. <https://www.churchofjesuschrist.org/callings/relief-society-organization/work-and-purpose/women-and-priesthood?lang=eng>

“Priesthood power is God’s power in the lives of men and women who keep their covenants. Priesthood authority is the permission or license to perform specific priesthood duties.” ~Sis Aburto
