Ashlee is the founder of A Reason to Stand—a non profit focused on healing and empowering survivors. She began her launch of a series of online courses in May 2022, with a passion for fellow widows, the first course called The Light Within: A Guided Course for Widows, went live May 2022. A course for infidelity survivors is in pre launch!! To be followed by so many other exciting courses.

“To every mother who seeks for hope for their children... and every child who has lost hope in their future.... You can make it through, reach for the ones who lift you up; turn to Christ and find the light through him that only He can bring. No matter where you stand in the moments of fear and pain... you are not alone if you let him steer your course.” ~Ashlee
