EPISODE 67 – Service Missions: A Tapestry of Love with Tracey Nelson

SHOW NOTE HIGHLIGHTS

Episode Show Notes

Tracey Nelson is married to Eric Nelson, (who happens to be Connie’s brother). She is a mother of 3 adult children (2 daughters and 1 son) and a grandmother of 6. She grew up in Calgary, Alberta Canada and came to the states to attend Ricks College and BYU where she graduated with a bachelor’s degree in social work. Tracey is a fun, inspiring and dedicated lady! She knows sign language and often helps interpret at church meetings and other programs. She is a Service Missionary for the BYU Pathway worldwide program and absolutely loves it. She also is a substitute teacher for the Boise School District, is involved community events and regularly works the Ada County Elections as a Chief Judge over one precinct. She enjoys biking, quilting, and most of all spending time with her family.

Mosiah 2:17, “when ye are in the service of your fellow beings ye are only in the service of your God.”

Service Missionaries: Our purpose is to help others come unto Christ by serving them as the Savior would. We serve voluntarily in charitable organizations, in Church functions and within the community. We will minister in His name to the one, just as He did, expressing His loving kindness.

Quote shared by Matthew Cowley: “You can’t have peace of mind and be in want materially. You can’t have the spirit of the gospel in your heart with an empty stomach, and so in the plan of the Master there is provision not only for the salvation of the spirit of man, but also for his physical being.”

President Marion G. Romney said, “Service is not something we endure on this earth so we can earn the right to live in the celestial kingdom. Service is the very fiber of which an exalted life in the celestial kingdom is made”
